

Offence	Penalty
Producing infringing copies for sale or hire. Selling, renting, trading, or offering infringing copies for sale. Distributing infringing copies. Possessing infringing copies, except for private and domestic use. Importing infringing copies into Kenya, except for private and domestic use.	For a first conviction: A fine of five times the market value of the legitimate work or one thousand shillings (approx. USD 7.15) per infringing copy (whichever is higher), or imprisonment for up to ten (10) years, or both. For subsequent convictions: A fine of ten times the market value of the legitimate work or two thousand shillings (approx. USD 14.3) per infringing copy (whichever is higher), or imprisonment for up to twenty (20) years, or both.
Providing audio recording equipment for unauthorized personal copying	A fine not exceeding two hundred thousand shillings (approx. USD 1, 430) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding four (4) years, or both.
Importing infringing copies into Kenya for purposes other than private and domestic use. Creating or possessing a device intended for making infringing copies. Facilitating the rebroadcast or transmission of a broadcast, knowingly infringing copyright. Distributing signals through unauthorized channels, knowingly infringing copyright. Bypassing technological protection measures or producing/distributing devices for such bypass. Removing or changing rights management information or importing/distributing copies with altered information.	A fine not exceeding one million shillings (approx. USD 7,140) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five (5) years or both.
Causing a public performance of a literary, musical, audio-visual work, or sound recording while copyright is in effect	A fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings (approx. USD 3,570), or imprisonment for a term not exceeding four (4) years, or both.

Selling or offering for sale copyright works without the required authentication devices.	A fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings (approx. USD 3,570) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding four (4) years, or both.
Engaging in unauthorized possession or reproduction of security devices, as well as owning equipment meant for producing such devices without the Kenya Copyright Boards approval.	A fine not exceeding two million shillings (approx. USD 14,285) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten (10) years, or both.
Lodging false or malicious takedown notices or counter notices	A fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings (approx. USD 3,570) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five (5) years, or both.
Obstructing an inspector's duties	A fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings (approx. USD 140) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six (6) months or to both.